Justification: (state briefly why legislative action is requested)

Per County Charter, the County Legislature is asked to confirm the appointment of former NYS Assembly Member John J. "Jack" McEneny to the position of Albany County Historian. Mr. McEneny is the ideal candidate, having an educational degree and work experience in history, a long career working in government, and a wealth of knowledge when it comes to local history. Additionally, this legislative action would provide the newly appointed County Historian with a modest annual stipend of $15,000 to assist with the job requirements.
