Justification: (state briefly why legislative action is requested)

The natural gas fixed daily pricing has recently dropped and reached a favorable pricing of 3.539 per dekatherm as compared to the current contract rate of $4.77 per dekatherm. Similarly the fixed monthly pricing has dropped to $3.491 per dekatherm as compared to $ 3.801 per dekatherm. The rate change would yield an estimated total savings of $145,662.94 for the contract terms listed above. In order to take advantage of the current market rate the Energy Advisory Group (EAG) is recommending extending the natural gas contracts with Direct Energy through the MEGA program.
