4. Describe the program, including how it is family focused. If you answered "Yes" to Q.1. Family Support Services program, be sure to demonstrate how your program meets each requirement of the legislation. Also, please explain how each of the service types selected in Q.2. will address the unique needs of youth at that system point, and how those services will aid in the reduction of youth detained and residentially or otherwise placed. If you selected Indirect Services, please list them. (Please refer to the STSJP Annual Plan Development Guide for additional guidance.)

The PATH program was originally designed and is currently funded under RTA to provide enhanced case management services to the RTA population, while incorporating the use of community coaches/credible messengers/mentors. Parsons Child and Family Center will administer this program and will collaborate with other community agencies to identify credible messengers/mentors who are members of the community in which they serve with real life experiences and will help in assisting youth and families navigate the juvenile justice system, all of which will be under the direct supervision and guidance of a case manager. STSJP funding for this program will be used to expand the use of this program for PINS youth both as an early intervention and an alternative to pre-dispositional placement. Additionally, this service will be available to children eligible under the differential response to prevent their entry into the juvenile justice or child welfare systems in the future. In addition, under RTA, two Probation Officers will be assigned to work directly with this program and will provide
