

Timothy L. Barnard
21 Balsam Way
Albany, New York 12205
tlbarnard31@gmail.com
518-527-0508

Objective

To maintain current appointment to the Fish and Wildlife Management Board of New York State as the Sportsman Representative for Albany County

Overview

Formally educated in the field of fisheries and wildlife management, Dedicated outdoors enthusiast and sportsman. Enjoy all aspects of hunting: archery, muzzle loading, big game, small game, and waterfowl. Experienced trapper, avid fisherman; flyfishing, bass fishing, trolling. Have spent a lifetime of hunting and fishing the waters and lands of New York State and hold licenses in all areas, well versed in hiking, canoeing, kayaking, camping, boating, and snowmobiling, licensed general aviation pilot. Nine years as church Outing Group leader, eleven years as Youth Group leader, New York State rural landowner

Experience

Apr 95 – Present:

- Representative for West Albany Rod and Gun Club (President, 2016 to Present)
  - Served as the Sportsman's Advocate for this organization. Shared opinions of this club with other clubs at the county level.
  - Advised members of new legislation and regulations affecting them as sportsmen.
  - Created membership interest in fish and wildlife issues
- Albany County Sportsman's Alliance
  - President 2021 - Present
  - Chairperson for the pheasant-stocking and trout-stocking programs within Albany County.

Current Appointments:

- New York State Fish and Wildlife Management Board – Albany County Sportsman Representative since 2011
- New York State Open Space Committee for the Fish and Wildlife Management Board
- New York State Conservation Council
- Waterfowl Task Force – Southeastern New York
- Conservation Advisory Council – Town of Colonie

Additional Memberships: Capital District Flyfishers, Ducks Unlimited, Ruffed Grouse Society

Career

March 82 – Present: Manufacturer's Representative – Instrumentation

Education

BS Fisheries and Wildlife Management. College Of Environmental Science and Forestry, Syracuse, NY (1977)

AS Science. SUNY Agricultural and Technical College at Cobleskill, NY (1975)

References Furnished upon request