

William F. Lyons
Schenectady, New York 12303

Objective:

To maintain current appointment to the Fish and Wildlife Management Board of New York State
As the Sportsman Alternate Representative for Albany County.

Overview:

Formally educated in the field of Forestry as a 1976 Graduate of Paul Smith's College.
Dedicated outdoors enthusiast and sportsman. Have been a lifetime participant in the outdoor sporting activities including hunting, fishing, camping, boating, snowmobiling, ATV-ing, hiking, and hold applicable licenses and/or permits as required.

Experience:

- *Member of West Albany Rod & Gun Club since 1989 and served as a Club Officer in the past.
- *Member of and current Treasurer of Albany County Conservation Alliance.
- *Current Representative for Region 4 – Albany County - for New York State Conservation Council
- *Member and current Treasurer for Salmon Pond Club, Blue Mt. Lake, New York
- *Member and past Membership Secretary of Hilltown Riders ATV Club.
- *Current Alternate for Albany County in New York State Fish and Wildlife Management Board since 2024
- *Past member of various other Sportsman Clubs and Sportsman related organizations

Career:

1976 to 2012 employed by NYS Department of Agriculture and Markets as a Farm Products Grading Inspector 1, 2, 3, 4 and Statewide Farm Products Grading Manager. Which included holding various licenses within USDA for the inspection of Fruits, Vegetable, Shell Eggs, and other commodities.
Retired since October 2012.

Education:

AAS Forestry 1976 – Paul Smiths College

References furnished upon request