Mr. William Connors
Albany County Probation
60 South Pearl Street
Albany, New York 12207

Dear Mr. Connors:

Thank you for your application for certification of a pretrial services agency in your county. Upon review of your application, you are hereby granted provisional certification of your pretrial services agency. The certification is provisional because it has been determined that the proposed pretrial services agency would need additional support to fully implement an adequate pretrial services program in the county. Nevertheless, provisional certification will allow the county to provide, to the best of its current capability, some level of pretrial services as of January 1, 2020.

The Office of Court Administration recognizes that it may be difficult to predict the demand for pretrial services in any given county before implementation of the legislation on January 1, 2020. Therefore, should your program be able to provide comprehensive services to meet the needs of the courts at any time before the end of the provisional certification period, please update your application with additional information and we will reassess whether to grant full certification.

Provisional certification is valid for one year and will require the filing of a new application before the end of that period for the pretrial services agency to become fully certified or to extend provisional certification.

Sincerely,
