Additions or amendments to the Code, when adopted in such form as to indicate the intent of the County Legislature to make them a part thereof, shall be deemed to be incorporated into such Code so that reference to the "Code of Albany County" shall be understood and intended to include such additions and amendments. Nothing contained in this local law shall affect the status of any local law or resolution contained in the Code, and such local laws or resolutions may be amended, deleted or changed from time to time as the County Legislature deems desirable.

Each section of this local law and of the Code and every part of each section is an independent section or part of a section, and the holding of any section or a part thereof to be unconstitutional, void or ineffective for any cause shall not be deemed to affect the validity or constitutionality of any other sections or parts thereof.

§ 1-5. Repealer.

Repeal of inconsistent enactments. All local laws of a general and permanent nature, or parts of such local laws, inconsistent with the provisions contained in the Code adopted by this local law are hereby repealed; provided, however, that such repeal shall only be to the extent of such inconsistency, and any valid legislation of Albany County which is not in conflict with the provisions of the Code shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect.
