Capital District Recovery Center

These positions will play a vital role in the prevention program. Listed below is the positions, the trainings, and the building of the infrastructure to support this grant opportunity and build the center in being empowered and impactful to the community and individuals that attend the programs at the center.

Executive Director will obtain the following: Building the infrastructure at the center
Training in case management supervision
SAMSHA review of prevention programming and how the center can align the goals to be effective.
Program manager supervision with DOH
SUNY Albany data and evaluation training
DOH public policy, public health, and post Covid training
Leadership training
MHANYS site review-how to continue to connect with the mental health population

Program Manager will obtain and implement the following:
Training in Harm Reduction and supervision of staff in harm reduction
Leadership Training with NYS OASAS in program deliverables in SUD initiatives
DOH public policy, public health, and post Covid Training
Grant review course
SUNY Albany data and evaluation training
DOH small wellness and health training
Marketing calendar and scheduling events
Following up with program invites and upcoming trainings
SAMSHA prevention program- leadership concepts training in developing a prevention program
Developing marketing strategies

Request that will be made once this grant is awarded:

NYS OASAS- reviewing the center's recovery support services and evaluating the program's impact

MHANYS- reviewing the center's recovery support services and how it impacts on the individuals that are identified as having mental health challenges, and co-occurring disorders.

Albany County Mental Health- building a relationship where the MOTOR program can be involved with our activities, events and individuals that could be shared clients. The presence of the MOTOR van could be a good asset to have.

Department of Health- obtaining trainings, support in meeting deliverables, data forming documents, and leadership training in the substance abuse field, public health agenda items, and post covid deliverables.